For a more in-depth list of infractions considered minor infractions please see the Code of Behaviour, included here and displayed throughout the school.
Level 2 (serious)	 Refusal to follow instructions given by teacher or SNA. Using threatening, intimidating or sexual language or using physically/sexually threatening gestures in the classroom or on the yard. Spitting Leaving the school without permission Bringing dangerous items to school Repeated inappropriate responses to teacher correction. Bullying other pupils Repeated and continuous incidences of minor misbehaviour.
Level 3 (gross)	 Lifting objects/furniture with the intention to cause harm to teachers, SNAs or other pupils. Being physically or sexually aggressive to teachers, SNAs or other pupils with the intent to cause harm. Causing wilful damage to school property / furniture/ educational resources. serious theft Spitting at someone Serious bullying Carrying cigarettes, alcohol or drugs on the school premises.

Any misconduct from Level 3 will result in an immediate 3-day suspension from school.

3 serious (level 2) incidents of misconduct will be considered the same as a single level 3 incident.

^{*}The class teacher, along with the educational support team, will consider any additional needs of the child and how this might impact their behaviour. Tailored support can be given to children with additional needs.

- Communication to parents regarding the suspension of a pupil or the possibility of suspension will be in writing and copies of all correspondence will be retained. In some circumstances it may be necessary to contact parents by phone.
- The parents/guardians and the pupil will be invited to meet with the Principal and/or Board of Management to discuss the proposed suspension.
- The Board of Management has delegated responsibility for suspension to the principal in the event that immediate suspension of a pupil is warranted.
- Where parents do not agree to meet with the Principal, written notification will serve as notice to impose a suspension.
- A written statement of the terms and date of the termination of a suspension will be given to parents/guardians.
- A suspension will not be for more than three days, except in exceptional circumstances where the principal considers that a period of suspension longer than three days is necessary in order to achieve a particular objective.

The letter will confirm:

- ✓ the period of the suspension and the dates on which the suspension will begin and end,
- ✓ the reasons for the suspension
- ✓ any study programme to be followed during the suspension
- ✓ the arrangements for returning to school, including any commitments to be entered into by the pupil and the parents (for example, the pupil and parents might be asked to reaffirm their commitment to the code of behaviour)
- ✓ the provision for an appeal to the Board of Management
- ✓ where applicable the right to appeal to the Secretary General of the Department of Education and Science (Education Act 1998 Section 29).

The suspension will be recorded on the NEWB 'Student Absence Report Form' (when applicable).

- When a period of suspension ends, the pupil will be re-admitted formally to the school by the principal. The school will help the pupil catch up on work missed and the pupil will be given the opportunity and support for a fresh start. In certain cases, re-admission will be conditional on the pupil and the pupil's parents agreeing to a contract of behaviour or a behaviour plan.
- Where a satisfactory resolution of a problem is achieved, a pupil may be readmitted to school within a suspension period at the discretion of the Principal and/or the Chairperson of the Board of Management.
- If a pupil continues to misbehave on return to the school s/he may be suspended for a major fixed period (up to ten days) to allow for consultation with both the pupil and the pupil's parents/guardians to address the issues.

EXPULSION

After the above suspension procedures and meetings with parents/guardians, if serious/gross incidents of misbehaviour continue, the pupil will be recommended for permanent expulsion by the Board of Management. In exceptional circumstances, pupils may be expelled for a first offence. Expulsion will apply in the event of any of the following concerning behaviours:

- The pupil's behaviour is a persistent cause of significant disruption to the learning of others or to the teaching process.

Management to the Minister for Education or to an authority delegated for such appeals by the Minister under Section 29 of the Education Act 1998.

Permanent expulsion may be appealed by a parent/guardian, by a student (over 18 years), or by the National Education Welfare Board. Any such appeal must be lodged within 42 calendar days of the decision of the Board of Management.

Record Keeping

In line with the school's policy on record keeping, and data protection legislation, records of behaviour are compiled by the teacher, psychologist and behaviour specialist where appropriate.

- o Records are written in a factual and impartial manner.
- The teacher report includes a section on behaviour where positive and negative behaviour is noted.
- Serious incidents of misbehaviour are reported immediately to the principal.
- Parents are kept informed regarding behaviour issues during the year.
 In general misbehaviour on the playground/lunchroom is dealt with on the spot by staff on duty.
 Verbal reports of behaviour are only given to the class teacher if necessary.
- o All DES documentation relating to behaviour is kept in the principal's office.
